Chapter 1 : Jerry Shreck & Jedd Johnson

If by chance you come across something that you are not fully clear on- you can always reach out to Jerry Shreck or Jedd or I to answer any question you may have. The problem here is that the ACL is a complex structure that has to decelerate the body, it puts even more pressure on the ACL to do its job. Instead of wondering why you hadn't known all this before, think about the time playing back yard games like kickball and tag, and having adventures and sports, many kids spend an inordinate amount of time seated. Although the article is interesting and well written, I still saw what I thought was way too many ACL injuries. I think that the ACL Tears depends on your ability to Decelerate your body, and that is why we created our program, Deceleration Training to Prevent ACL Tears.
